ARTIS—NAPLES ANNOUNCES NEW $1 MILLION MATCHING GIFT

A $1 million matching gift amplifies new and increased giving through June 30

Naples, FL (November 12, 2021) - Artis—Naples announced today that an anonymous board member has pledged a $1 million matching gift in support of Artis—Naples programming. This new gift will match all new and increased giving through June 30, 2022.

“We are deeply grateful to have this tremendous level of support from one of our amazing board members who, like the rest of our board, believes strongly in our multidisciplinary mission and is committed to helping us fulfill our commitment to creating, curating and presenting world-class visual and performing arts,” said CEO and President Kathleen van Bergen. “This support is particularly important as we emerge from a year unlike any other and gather again—with Esprit de Corps, our season theme—to enjoy the arts together on the Kimberly K. Querrey and Louis A. Simpson Cultural Campus.”

Artis—Naples is presenting a full and robust 2021-22 season, van Bergen notes, including the highly anticipated exhibitions Baseball Heroes: Works from the Jay H. Baker Collection and Love in All Forms: Selections from the Art Collection of Patty and Jay Baker, on view in The Baker Museum through May 15. Another eagerly awaited exhibition, Pam Longobardi: Ocean Gleaning, opens December 18 in The Baker Museum. This fall the Naples Philharmonic returned for Andrey Boreyko’s eighth and final season as music director with Masterworks performances featuring classical favorites. Another highlight on the horizon is Principal Pops Conductor Jack Everly and the Naples Philharmonic presenting the classic film An American in Paris with the timeless score performed live in March. The performing arts season is rounded out with appearances by the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra and The Cleveland Orchestra, a Broadway season of beloved classics and recent hits such as Come From Away, My Fair Lady and Dear Evan Hansen and the return of Miami City Ballet.

Matching gifts can be made by contacting the Development Department at 239-254-2615 or online at <https://artisnaples.org/give>.

KIMBERLY K. QUERREY and LOUIS A. SIMPSON CULTURAL CAMPUS

Led by CEO and President Kathleen van Bergen and Sharon and Timothy Ubben Music Director Andrey Boreyko, we offer audiences more than 800 paid and free events annually within a variety of venues and settings situated throughout the 8.5-acre Kimberly K. Querrey and Louis A. Simpson Cultural Campus. Artis—Naples welcomes thousands of visitors each year for a broad array of artistic and educational opportunities perfect for audiences of all backgrounds and interests. The cultural campus is home to five buildings, including two performance halls (Frances Pew Hayes Hall and Myra J. Daniels Pavilion), The Baker Museum, the Toni Stabile Education Building and the Kohan Administration Building.

In the 2014-15 season, Andrey Boreyko assumed the title of music director and serves in this capacity for Artis—Naples. Boreyko is internationally recognized as one of the most exciting and dynamic conductors working today. This appointment, which concludes in 2022, is his first American post.

The Wall Street Journal says van Bergen and Boreyko have ushered in “an impressive new phase” for classical music in Southwest Florida.

NAPLES PHILHARMONIC

The Naples Philharmonic has long been recognized as one of the cornerstones of Southwest Florida’s arts community. As part of Artis—Naples, the Naples Philharmonic performs more than 140 orchestral and chamber music concerts, as well as opera and ballet, education, community and special event concerts annually between September and June in the 1,477-seat Hayes Hall, the 283-seat Daniels Pavilion and around the Southwest Florida region.

Jack Everly is Principal Pops Conductor and in the 2021-22 season celebrates 12 years in this role, bringing pops performances that celebrate music in its many forms. In 2017, Romanian conductor Radu Paponiu was named assistant conductor of the Naples Philharmonic and director of the Naples Philharmonic Youth Orchestra, and in 2019, he was promoted to associate conductor.

THE BAKER MUSEUM

The Baker Museum is one of the foremost fine art museums in Southwest Florida. The museum hosts several traveling exhibitions annually to complement installations of works from its permanent collection. Comprising more than 4,000 objects, the museum’s broad holdings of 20th- and 21st-century art reflect the generosity and commitment of area collectors. Of particular strength are The Baker Museum’s collections of American and Mexican modern art and significant gifts from the personal collection of Olga Hirshhorn.

With more than two decades of collecting and exhibiting, the museum is dedicated to stewardship and scholarship from both its growing permanent collection and outside sources. At the same time, The Baker Museum seeks out the best traveling exhibitions from the leading arts institutions in the world—including recently the Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art and the Smithsonian Institutions—to enrich the Southwest Florida community.

In fall 2020, Artis—Naples celebrated the opening of an 18,000-square-foot expansion of The Baker Museum building, designed by Weiss/Manfredi Architecture/Landscape/Urbanism, that created new spaces for multidisciplinary exploration and social interaction.

EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY

In addition to creating and presenting visual and performing arts, Artis—Naples provides robust education and community activities for students of all ages. Each season thousands of Collier County Public Schools interact with Artis—Naples education programming both on its cultural campus and in classrooms. The Lifelong Learning program provides engaging lectures and study opportunities for adults seeking to engage more deeply with the arts.

The Friends of Artis—Naples, with more than 4,000 households who give $75 or more, offers activities, travel experiences and events geared toward creating a deeper relationship between patrons and the arts.

In 2017, Artis—Naples acquired the Naples International Film Festival (NIFF), expanding its film offerings and providing a platform for the festival’s continued excellence and growth. In 2019, NIFF was named one of MovieMaker magazine’s Top 25 Coolest Film Festivals in the World, and in 2021 celebrated its 13th year in the community.
